

The Holy Democrat,
With a Weekly Supplement.
OFFICIAL PAPER OF YOLO COUNTY.
WOODLAND, CAL.
Thursday, August 31, 1876.

NATIONAL Democratic Nominations.

FOR PRESIDENT:
SAMUEL J. TILDEN,
OF NEW YORK.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:
THOS. A. HENDRICKS,
OF INDIANA.

FOR CONGRESSMAN:
J. K. LUTTRELL,
OF SONOMA COUNTY.

What a Mighty Change.

Only a few months ago the Republicans of this country, with very few consistent exceptions, were just as much if not more bitterly opposed to the National Administration than the Democrats. Some of our present county officers went so far as to refuse nomination by the Republican party. They were "Independents," forsooth, and no party was so mean in their eyes as the regular Republican. Grant and his Administration were denounced as the very embodiment of official corruption by the "Independent" Mail, as well as by many prominent individuals of the party. Even the turn-out Booth used the strongest invective in their denunciation, and declared it to be his inextinguishable purpose to do all in his power for the overthrow of the Republican party, as did also the Independent platform, upon which he was nominated and elected Governor. But after the election was over nothing more was heard of the Independent party; its component parts, in the main, resolved themselves back into their original elements, in this country very nearly all going to and with the Radicals they had so recently and so violently denounced, rather than unite themselves with the party of reform, which is now, as then, striving to bring about a change in the Administration of the Government and to replace the thieves now in office with men of known integrity and honesty—just what the Independent party professed to desire. And to-day what do we see? Newton Booth is announced to take the stump for Hayes and Wheeler upon a platform which not only sustains Grant and the corrupt hold-over vampires he has drawn around him, but actually lauds them for the manner in which they have conducted the Government. The Mail is loud in praise of the Republican party and its candidates. The aforesaid Independent county officers, having accomplished their object—that of being elected—now quietly submit to the dictation of the Republican leaders, doing whatever they are bidden; drawing their pay and finding no fault with anybody. Grant is now as good as the best Hayes and Wheeler purity itself, and nothing outside of the Republican party is worthy of their association or even consideration! How could inconsistency show itself more plainly? How could men by any possibility stultify themselves and their public record to a greater degree? They could not. The few gentlemen who stuck to the Republican party and are still true to it, occupy a far more enviable and honorable position than the so-called Independents who have crawled back into the Republican organization, eaten so much dirt and so completely contradicted themselves. Oh, consistency!

YOUTH'S DIRECTORY.—This is the name of a free intelligence bureau recently started in San Francisco and sustained by the contributions of the benevolent, for the benefit of the numerous idle boys in San Francisco particularly, many of whom are willing to work in the country if they can only get employment. The report of Ambrose F. Dietz, Agent, shows that in March he had 32 applications from boys for situations, 31 of whom were supplied; for April, 91 applicants, 82 provided; May, 119 applicants, 112 provided. Thus it will be seen that the Directory has already done a great amount of good. Its work embraces every nationality, without regard to religious or political opinions. Office, 520 Bush street, San Francisco.

COMPLIMENTARY.—We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the National Forest Convention, to be held at Lea Grove, New Jersey, September 7th and 8th. The Convention will be held under the auspices of the American Forest Council. The object aimed at is the encouragement of forest or tree growth to a greater extent in this country, etc.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.

A prominent German of this county called on us the other day and paid a year's subscription for the DEMOCRAT. He remarked that he had heretofore voted the Republican ticket, but this time should vote for Tilden and Hendricks.

The Republicans have expended since the war, "in carrying on the Government," according to a statement recently published in the New York Sun, the astounding sum of $3,306,306, $398—a sum equal to the national debt of Great Britain, or a thousand millions more than the whole national debt of this country—an average of over three hundred and thirty million dollars a year! What wonder that the people want reform? It ought not to have been a quarter of this sum.

Hayes and his party have been talking reform, Gov. Tilden has been ACTIVE REFORM.

A gentleman desires to make the following bet—$100 that Tilden will carry Connecticut; $100 that he will carry New York; $100 that he will carry Indiana; $100 that he will be elected President.

The Hollister Enterprise, which has heretofore been conducted as an "Independent" journal, in its issue of the 19th instant announces a change of base, and we heartily welcome it to the field of Democratic labor in the approaching Presidential canvass.

Parke Godwin says: The Ringbreaker of New York will prove the Ringbreaker of the Nation. All who really desire honest money, diminished taxes, pure administration, unfettered trade and the restoration of a true national feeling in the place of a wretched sectionalism, will rally to his support.

No Radical organ will admit that the Democratic House has saved the country a dollar, but they all pitch into the members "for their miserable conduct in cutting down appropriations." A million dollars chopped off this and that bill has taken the pin-money away from office-holders and saved it to the farmer and mechanic. Democratic speakers cannot emphasize the fact, which has come so forcibly home to them, that by Governor Tilden's wise and economic administration the taxpayers of New York pay this year $7,963,155 less taxes than a year ago.

We are at last a homogeneous people. There is no North, no South; but the machinery of Republican politics wears over us at once a truncheon and a "bloody shirt," (as if the war had not ended eleven years ago) and seeks to kindle old animosities while inaugurating a policy of passion.

The Secretary of the Interior is not a servant of the Republican party, but of the United States, and when he comes down from that high position to assume the direction of a party canvass, without resigning his office, he simply illustrates the contempt for official decorum which has grown up under General Grant's administration. Such a platform as that set forth by the Democracy would satisfy Lincoln or Chase, or Greeley, or Sumner. But Republicanism, now, means Conkling, and Morton, and Sargent, and Logan, as the power behind the throne—it means the continued domination of an arrogant and unscrupulous aristocracy of office-holders; it means power without conscience, and it mistakes audacity for statesmanship. Politics is not a profession; it is a duty; and because we believe it our duty, we advocate the election of Tilden and Hendricks.

What Governor Tilden has done in New York, and what the Democratic Congress has done, Governor Houston has been doing in Alabama. Says the Montgomery Advertiser: "He stopped the leaks, cut down expenses, he practiced the most rigid economy, and will save the people at least $20,000,000 during his term. Wherever the Democrats have control in the South order prevails, and the people feel secure in their person and property."

General Sigel is out in a strong letter urging the people to support Tilden and Hendricks. The whole influence of General Sigel is also going for the Democracy. The one was a native German and the other a native Irishman. Both were brave and able Generals of the war.

The Radicals are beginning to realize that the boys in blue, as they call them, are not all with that party. An organization of Democrats, soldiers who fought for the Union, and now propose supporting Tilden and Hendricks, is being perfected. General Joseph Hooker is commander of the new organization. The list is already large. Such names as Hooker, Hancock, McClellan, McClelland, Sigel, Slocum and Brinkerhoff are already on the list.

Fighting Joe Hooker, General McClellan, McDowell and Sigel, Charles Francis Adams, Charles O'Connor and Judge Davis support Tilden and Hendricks. Grant, Conkling, Ben. Butler, Babcock, Belknap and Williams, of landmark fame, support Hayes and Wheeler.

Governor Tilden did not tell in his letter what he thought of the school question, or the hot weather, or the Sioux war, or the dry spell, or the Centennial Exhibition, or the excessive mortality, or the Hamburg massacre, or the tramp nuisance, or the Belknap impeachment, or Bear Robeson's frauds, or a thousand other things of popular interest. But still he touched upon everything necessary for all that.

The St. Louis platform denounces Grant's Administration. The Cincinnati platform endorses it. If the platforms of the two parties were identical in every particular save this it would be the duty of every true patriot to vote for the "candidates who stand on the St. Louis platform."

An "Old Republican" of Springfield, Clarke county, Ohio, writes to the New York Sun that he finds in his township twenty-one voters who voted for Grant in 1872 that will vote for Tilden and reform. The Democratic vote will be increased 1,000 over that of 1872 in that county.

Wisconsin is going to give Uncle Samuel as much as 10,000 majority.

Grant's new Surveyor-General of Washington Territory, W. H. Howard, of Texas, was tried in Palestine, Texas, in 1873, for fraudulent and disreputable conduct unbecoming an attorney at law. The verdict "barred" him from ever practicing in the Courts of that State. Pass him around.

The Philadelphia Telegraph, commenting upon Tilden's letter, says: "If Mr. Tilden should be elected President, and should carry out to the letter the programme which he outlines, he would be the best and greatest President that has ever been in the White House."

It is with pleasure that the Richmond Whig is able to state that the three ablest and most influential colored ministers in that city are for Tilden and Hendricks. The Tilden and Hendricks movement is fast gaining ground among the colored people in that city.

Grant, Morton, Cameron, Belknap, Babcock, Chandler, Logan, Spencer, Clayton, Patterson, Dorsey, Kellogg, Packard, Boss Shepherd, and the whole venal crew, are in the front, crying out for Hayes, and spending their stolen money to make him President. They are the real leaders, and they are the men who would run Hayes if elected—as he is not likely to be.

A Republican of Buchanan County, Missouri, writes that he lived thirteen years in sight of the Tildens in New York, and knew them well as neighbors and citizens, and he adds: "If Samuel J. Tilden is not an honest man, and a patriot I am no judge of men, and, though I have been a Republican since 1856, I shall this year vote for Tilden and Hendricks, if I live till November."

The Republicans now have a majority of nine in the Senate. The terms of seventeen of the Republican members expire in March next. There is every reason to believe that the Democrats will secure enough of these seats to give them a majority of two in the next Senate. Then, with a majority of reformers in each branch of Congress, and with Sam. J. Tilden in the White House, the country will turn over a new leaf indeed.

The Daily Patriot, for twelve years a Radical paper, lately took down the names of Hayes and Wheeler and put up those of Tilden and Hendricks. The Patriot has been purchased by Tooley, Aulbach & Co., who will run it as a Democratic journal hereafter.

"The man to elect for the Presidential office must not only have deserved the good will of honest people, but the fear and hatred of thieves. We need a reformer whose courage and ability are not a matter of mere rumor but of experience. Such a man has been found in Samuel J. Tilden. He has not only begun two Herculean contests, but has conducted them through triumphantly. To oppose him in opening a third battle would, in my opinion, be criminal; not to support him would be cowardice." So said the Hon. Charles Goepff, Judge of the Marine Court of New York July 1st, 1876, on tendering his resignation as a member of the New York German Republican Central Committee.

California's electoral vote is almost sure for Tilden and Hendricks, but it will take work to make it absolutely certain. Work wins. The Democracy must be active and alert for the next few weeks, and victory awaits them. Let no Democrat forget that eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.

A few evenings ago a Tilden Reform Club was organized in Santa Rosa with an enrollment of 400 members. Not bad for a starter.

Sigel says that the "home guards" are taking entirely too much credit on themselves for suppressing the rebellion. "Hooker says: 'We fought for a Union, not that politicians should rob and pillage the Treasury of the nation.'"

If the Democrats gain throughout the country in the same proportion they have in Alabama, our Uncle Samuel will have about a million majority.

Palmer, Farnsworth, Trumbull, Koerner and Herndon, all of Illinois, and all heretofore the ablest and most influential Republicans of that State, are actually supporting Tilden and Hendricks.

Out of seventeen German papers in Iowa, thirteen support Tilden.

The Republican managers are hiring men in the South to hoist Confederate banners with the names of Tilden and Hendricks inscribed thereon. So says the Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Boston Globe, a good Republican paper, says that Governor Tilden's letter "shows that he has mastered the science of finance, and would never give countenance to any makeshift policy."

James Lyons, of Virginia, who presided over the O'Connor Presidential Convention in 1872, and has since voted the Radical ticket, now supports Tilden.

The New York Herald says that two of the gentlemen elected as Republicans last fall in New York have already gone over to Tilden—Judge Olinde and Judge Goepff. We do not see why a statesman should not become a reformer if he wishes to after entering upon an office. This is a good time for Republicans to become Democrats.

In the City of New York, up to Thursday, August 17th, twenty-two Tilden and Hendricks Clubs, composed exclusively of persons heretofore Republicans, had been organized in several wards.

The Democratic House has saved the country $29,584,205 on appropriations this year. It is a "Confederate House," says the Cincinnati Enquirer.

The New York Sun thinks that Hayes is likely to carry two States, Vermont and Iowa, but is not sure about it.

The Republican Senate stood in the way of all substantial reforms throughout the eight months and a half that Congress was in session. There is not a redeeming feature in the proceedings of the majority.

The election of Tilden will mean reform, economy, and a reduction of taxation. Every voter in the country demands this, and hence every voter should feel it his duty to vote for Tilden and Hendricks.

An exchange very aptly remarks: "One great trouble with this country is that there are two many second-class men occupying first class positions. To stop the leak all the square blocks must be taken out of the round holes."

General Hard Times is making thousands of voters for Tilden, says the Cleveland Plaindealer. People want a change. The robbers must be cleaned out at Washington; then we will have lower taxes and prosperous trade.

The Richmond Dispatch kindly remarks of the withdrawal of Orth, that "this is a terrible and we trust a fatal blow to Hayes, so far as Indiana is concerned."

Mr. George Ticknor Curtis, the eminent man of letters, writes a letter covering two columns in the Boston Post, to Hon. F. O. Prince, of Boston, Secretary of the National Democratic Committee, pronouncing emphatically for Tilden and reform.

If the Radicals carry Vermont, and Maine and Iowa, this year they will consider that they have done well to save as much as that.

NEW PATENTS.—Through Dewey & Co., Patent Agents, San Francisco, we receive the following advance list of U. S. Patents, granted to Pacific Coast Inventors, viz: Charles Cremer, Red Bluff, California, wagon covers; H. G. Livermore, San Francisco, furnaces for roasting ores; Thomas Mann, Portland, Oregon, brick and mortar elevators; Thomas Brady and Dennis R. Manning, San Francisco, expandable gates for sewers; Thomas Jory and John W. Jory, Salem, Oregon, grain separators; Wm. Fletcher, Ukiah, California, harness buckles; Samuel Kellet, San Francisco (designs), center piece.

LA CREME DE LA CREME.—This monthly musical magazine, No 33, is to hand, with the following pieces designed for advanced players: "The Whirlwind," grande valse de concert, by Mattei; "Sweet Love," meditative, by Lange; "La Styrienne," morceau de salon, by Terschak. These three pieces sell in sheet form for 40, 50 and 40 cents each, respectively; and yet the magazine is sold for 25 cents, or $2 a year, by J. L. Peters, 843 Broadway, New York.

THE CHINESE COMMISSION.—We have received the volume of testimony taken before the Senate Committee of California on the social, moral and political effect of Chinese immigration. The testimony is voluminous and will no doubt do much toward opening people's eyes to the magnitude of the evils connected with this degraded class of humanity. We shall publish extracts hereafter. The Commission is composed of Senators Raymond, McComb, Pierson, Donovan, Rogers, Lewis and Evans.

Town and County Matters

Our Campaign Offer.

We propose to those who are not taking the DEMOCRAT and desire to do so, to receive subscriptions for one year at the regular price, payable when Tilden and Hendricks are elected President and Vice-President of the United States. We have this much faith in the success of our nominees and the pure principles they represent.

THE DEMOCRAT will be up with the times in all that pertains to the campaign just opening, and will at the same time keep its readers posted upon the local and general news of the day.

All who want the paper are invited to send in their names on this proposition.

OFF THE GRADE.—Last Wednesday

a party of Woodland campers started home from Cobb Valley, Lake county, and when a few miles from camp, one of the wagon brakes being defective, the team, driven by Geo. D. Fiske,

Jr., became unmanageable, ran off the grade and tipped the wagon over.

The driver was thrown some distance down the hill, stunned and considerably bruised, but not seriously injured.

The horses brought up in a tree top and the wagon was smashed. This caused considerable delay and some expense. The party arrived home

Friday afternoon, however, in good spirits, dirty as pigs and black as Indians. The only regret expressed was at the accident and that they could not have stayed another month.

HON. BARCLAY HENLEY.—This eloquent champion of Democracy and Reform, ex-Assemblyman and one of the nominees of the Democracy of California for Presidential Elector, will address the Woodland Tilden and Hendricks Club this (Thursday) evening in Central Hall at eight o'clock.

General Walsh's Address.

After the ordinary routine of business on Thursday evening last by the Tilden and Hendricks Club—reading of minutes of last meeting, etc.—Adjuant-General Walsh addressed an audience of perhaps two hundred in the Club Room.

Gen. Walsh expressed himself glad at seeing so large a number of voters present. He believed the time had come when the citizens of free America had determined to redeem their much loved country from the unfortunate condition into which it had fallen. A single day of liberty was worth more to the true patriot than an age of bondage. The candidates of the parties are before the people, and it is the duty of all, whatever their previous party connection, to act in such a manner as shall redeem our country. As to the creed of the Democracy, civil and religious liberty are a part of the record of that party, and it stands firmly upon principle under all circumstances, and will so stand to the end—the great principles of the Constitution being the underlying bulwark of our liberty in the past and for the future.

Referring to the Cincinnati Convention, the speaker remarked that of the 750 Delegates comprising it 600 were office-holders, and therefore it was emphatically an office-holders' convention. Blaine, Bristow, Morton stood no chance; the "great unknown" came in and Rutherford B. Hayes became the candidate of the Republican machine—he was not the choice of the party, as every one knew; Blaine was the choice of the rank and file by a large majority. But Mr. Hayes will be left so far behind in the race that he won't know himself. The mantle of charity cannot cover the defeat of Grant. He loved and admired the deeds of the true soldier, but the President of this free Republic should be a civilian and a statesman, and not an epauletted chieftain used to deeds of blood, without the slightest conception of the country's needs in time of peace. A statesman and an honest man, one who comprehends his country's needs, knows enough to lead on to prosperity, and place our finances on a proper basis—who will sever the political heads of the thieves and vampires in office and put patriots in their places

BUSINESS CHANGE.—The stock, fixtures and good-will of Welch & Marders in the meat market on the south side of Main Street near the Postoffice, have been purchased by our old friend

Martin Steinhilts and H. Leinberger, of Washington, in this county, who will take possession on Saturday next.

The purchasing firm are well known in this community, and both are gentlemen of long experience in the business. It is to be expected that their adventure will be productive of profitable results to themselves and satisfactory to the community.

PUBLIC DOCUMENTS.—From Hon. J.

L. Luttrell, M. C., we have received a copy of the United States Geological and Geographical Survey of Colorado, by Hayden; also a copy of the Reports of the United States Commissioners to the Vienna International Exhibition.

They are both interesting works for those who can spare the time to peruse them. Friends can borrow them for a short time.

SHOW.—The Democratic State Central Committee is very slow in entering upon the work of the campaign. It is fortunate that the Democratic nominees themselves have inspired the people with enthusiasm, or there would be very little activity in the party.

Perhaps it is better so. The people will take care who is elected.

WATER WORKS.—Mr. Peek has opened his other well, sunk before the one now in use, and is erecting a wind mill with which to pump from it into his distributing reservoir, and thus economize the expense by saving steam —a most excellent idea. No power is so cheap as that furnished by nature—wind and water.

DEATH FROM SHOOTING.—Among

our death notices appears that of a young man named Waterman, of Knights Landing. He accidentally shot himself in the arm, from which he suffered excruciating agony for over a week, when death put an end to his sufferings. Boys should be very careful when handling firearms.

REPUBLICAN CLUB.—An attempt was made, we presume successfully, on Saturday evening last, to organize a Republican Club in this place. The story is that several hundred dollars have been sent here for the purpose of carrying Yolo County. But it will take more than coin to win the coming

FATAL MINING ACCIDENT.—We learn from the Mariposa Gazette of the 26th that six white men and one Chi-naman were killed by a premature explosion in the Benton Mill Tunnel, Merced river.

ANOTHER SALOON.—The saloon at the corner of Sixth and Main streets, after a long rest, has again been opened and seems to be patronized considerably.

"VICK."—We have received Vick's

Floral Guide for the last quarter of 1876, and find it an interesting and useful number, tasty and beautiful withal.

A Harvest of Health.

Those who use Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

as a means of invigoration and protection against disease, invariably reap an ample harvest of health. Digestion, excretion and secretion are rendered regular and vigorous by this ruling tonic and alterative, and the essentials of health being secured, that blessing naturally follows. Nervous diseases, intermittent and remittent fevers, rheumatism, biliousness, and kidney or bladder troubles are speedily relieved by the Bitters, which are
